

„The Sacredness of All” Tour, 2020 Kapu loa o nā mea āpau

Welina (Greetings)!

Aloha is a place of warmth that transcends definition. It is a place that remembers itself in our bones when we experience this truth. A place that dwells eternally in our hearts of knowing. Yet a quest that eludes us when we are no longer able to enliven our spirit in self-trust.

Aloha is a garden of possibilities awakening the gentle call inward. To rest in loving moments authentic to our hearts. It feeds breath, life, and the knowing flutters of heart beats. It lifts and preserves hope.

Our garden of possibilities keeps us grounded in aloha. As we walk deeply upon the altar of Mother Earth’s temple body, it rises in hope and intoxicates our senses with loving awareness of all that is, sacred is all, all is sacred.

Every breath in aloha is a choice of harmony, peace, resting in the great “I Am”, of which we all are. Its mystery our empty vessel surrendering, to new possibilities of hope beyond measure. We are alive in the authentic template of aloha. We are gratitude manifest in awakened actions of love.

E ola ka hā!
